

Agreements of DomainATM Software

I request access to DomainATM software (<https://mingxia.web.unc.edu/domainatm/>) for research purposes. I agree to the following terms.

1. To access DomainATM services, please provide information about users/applicants as part of the registration process for the service and ensure that the registration information is accurate, correct and up to date.
2. Any publications, books, posters, reports, algorithms, etc. published using results generated by DomainATM, please cite the following paper:
[1] Hao Guan, Mingxia Liu. DomainATM: Domain Adaptation Toolbox for Medical Data Analysis. arXiv:2209.11890, 2022.
3. The name of the user's institute/organization will appear on the user list of DomainATM.
4. The services provided by the website of DomainATM may change from time to time and the DomainATM may stop permanently or temporarily providing the services or any features without prior notice.
5. DomainATM is a research prototype and may therefore contain possible imperfections or errors for which the DomainATM owners disclaim any liability.
6. The DomainATM software was shared by the Machine Intelligence in Biomedical Computing (MAGIC) lab. The MAGIC lab reserves the right to the interpretation of the above terms and conditions.

NOW, THEREBY, by signing below, I agree that I have read, understand, and agree to the conditions set forth above.
